conference rooms

The Arts & Leisure Centre has 3 dedicated conference rooms:

The Thomas Alleynes

The smallest of our purpose built conference rooms is the Thomas Alleynes. It has excellent natural daylight and is ideal for a more intimate event. Equipped with sliding flipcharts and screen, it is a purpose built, well maintained conference suite for all your conference needs.

The Lewis Silkin

The Lewis Silkin has fantastic natural daylight and access onto our adjoining patio, which can be used by all of your delegates. This room is also equipped with sliding flipcharts and screen.

The Ellen Terry

The Ellen Terry is our largest conference suite, ideal for your corporate or social needs. Equipped with full bar facilities, this purpose built room leads onto the spacious Reception Lounge area, which is ideal for break-out sessions, refreshments and drinks receptions.

the gordon craig theatre

This luxurious 501 seat theatre is the perfect venue for full-scale conferences. With continental-style raked seating, extensive range of lighting and sound facilities and 14 dressing rooms, this charming auditorium is the venue of choice for seminars, presentations and more.

the main events hall

The Main Hall and the Bowls Hall are two unique venues capable of hosting a multitude of events. The two areas, linked by short corridors, can be transformed into exceptional venues by the additional option of our in-house modular ivory marquee, high quality laminate wooden flooring or luxury carpet. Both halls are equipped with full staging and on hand technical support and advice catering for your needs...

Whatever your function or event, our in-house catering team will work with you to meet your specific requirements. We believe in a working partnership with our clients to ensure all aspects of the day are catered for. We are happy to develop a bespoke menu for you and your delegates, or you can choose from our exciting range of menus, which are available upon request.

For more information on our menus please contact our Conference & Events Team on 01438 242679 or email us on conference@stevenage-leisure.co.uk.
